DAILY PUZZLES REQUIRES GRANTING OF LIQUOR LICENSES

West Virginia Supreme Court Grants Writ of Mandamus in Martinsburg Case—Veterans to Place Markers at Historic Spots in Clarke County.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. Martinsburg, Va., September 8.—There was great indignation among the liquor men of Martinsburg, Va., when the Supreme Court of West Virginia granted a writ of mandamus to the Clarke County Board of Liquor Licensees, requiring them to issue a license to the Martinsburg Veterans Association.

The Martinsburg Veterans Association, which has been organized for the purpose of placing markers at historic spots in Clarke County, has been granted a writ of mandamus by the Supreme Court of West Virginia, requiring the Clarke County Board of Liquor Licensees to issue a license to the association.
